Forward-looking statements include statements regarding: our construction programme, planned deliveries and future construction and development projects (information concerning which is being provided solely on an indicative basis for information purposes only and is subject to change without notice); strategies, outlook and growth prospects; future plans and potential for future growth; liquidity, capital resources and capital expenditures; growth in demand for products; economic outlook and industry trends; developments of markets; the impact of regulatory initiatives; and the strength of competitors. Construction programme area figures set out in this Presentation, including any “Total area of construction programme” figures, may not reflect the final construction programme area figures. Whether such figures do or do not reflect the final construction programme area figures, they may not reflect the revenues ultimately recognised by the Company. Calculating construction programme area figures is an inherently subjective process, and is subject to uncertainty. In addition, the construction programme area figures may not be directly comparable to figures given in respect of similar portfolios held by other real estate development businesses in the Russian market as a result of different assumptions and methodologies. In particular, “Total area of construction programme” figures include area in which governmental authorities, and other third parties, have an interest. In this Presentation, references to planned deliveries are to planned deliveries for the period specified in this Presentation, in accordance with the Company’s construction programme.

The term “NSA” as used in this Presentation refers to Net Sellable/Leasable Area. NSA figures include parking lots (calculated assuming an average parking lot area of 30m²) in the case of Projects under development, and exclude parking lots in the case of completed Projects. NSA figures also exclude communal areas and other areas not for sale.
